

Contents

End-of-Semester Presentation – American Art	1
Spiral Jetty (1970) . . . . .	1
I Shop Therefore I Am (1990) . . . . .	2
Napoleon Leading the Army Over the Alps (2005) . . . . .	4

End-of-Semester Presentation – American Art

<https://www.theartstory.org/definition/american-art/> <https://www.theartstory.org/definition/american-art/history-and-concepts/#nav>

Spiral Jetty (1970)

Figure 1: Spiral Jetty

- Robert Smithson
- 1500 foot spiral in Great Salt Lake
- Earth Work or Earth Art
  - shaping the land itself
  - using natural materials like rocks and tree branches
  - ranges from temporary small alterations to long lasting, significant ones
  - installations can also be displayed inside galleries

I Shop Therefore I Am (1990)

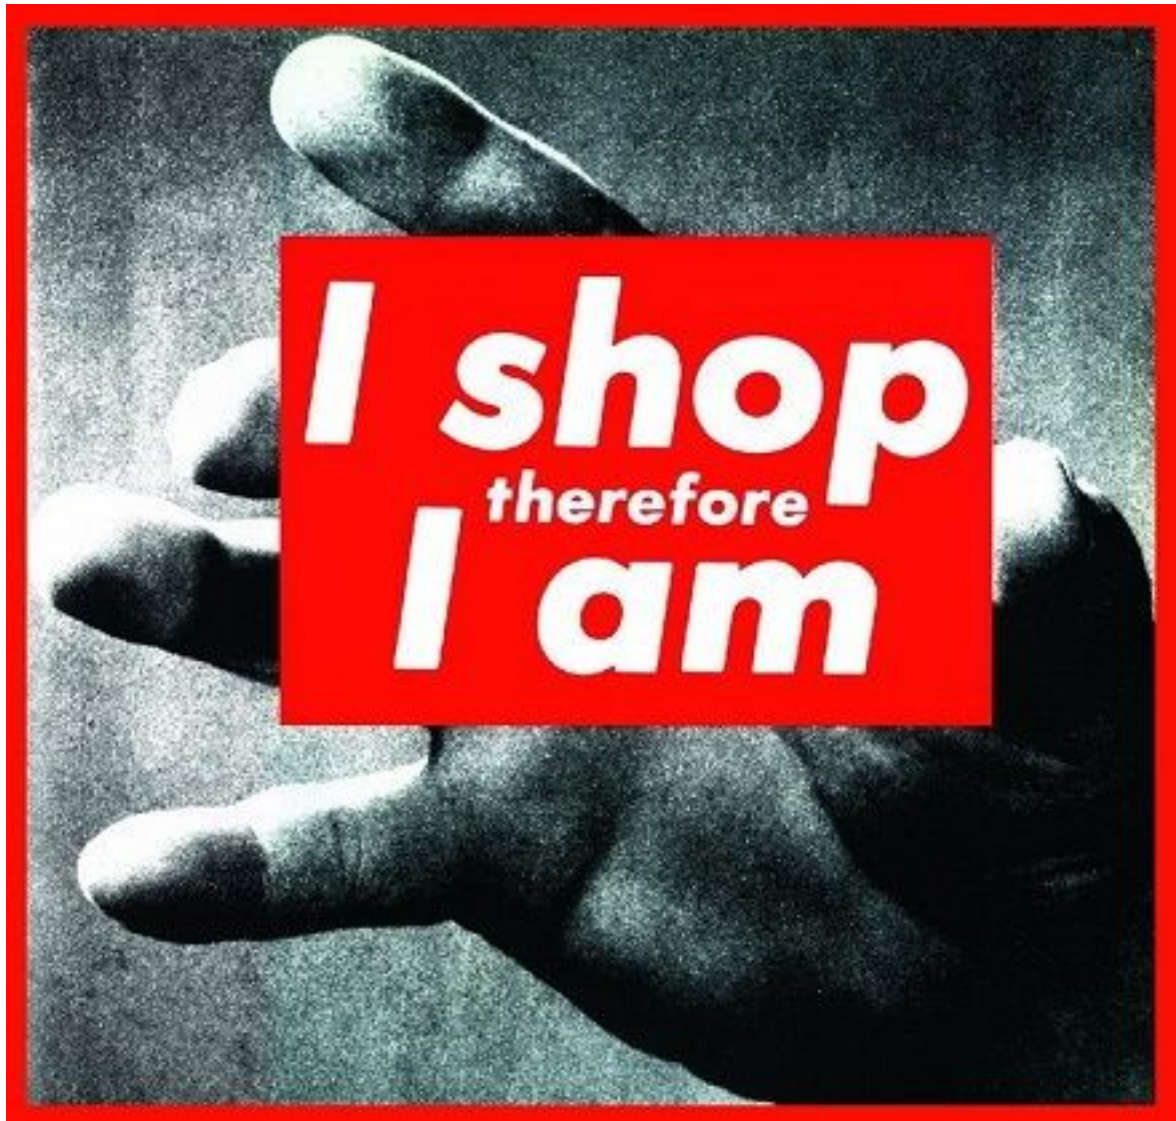

Figure 2: I Shop Therefore I am

- Barbara Kruger
  - best known for her prints
  - tongue-in-cheek satire on Reaganomics and consumerism
  - critique of social, cultural, political things
- cut-outs from magazines
- Feminist
  - challenge dominance of men and assumptions about womanhood
  - recently also covers intersections with race, class, forms of privilege, gender identity, fluidity
- Conceptual
  - prizes ideas over the formal or visual components of art

Figure 3: Your body is a battleground

Napoleon Leading the Army Over the Alps (2005)

Figure 4: Napoleon Leading the Army Over the Alps

- Kehinde Wiley
  - painted Obama's official portrait in 2017
- oil on canvas
- appropriation and re-visioning of the famous painting
  - artists using pre-existing objects or other works of art with little transformation
  - traced back to collages of cubists from 1912